BOULANGER IN ENGLAND.

RAILWAYS FOR THE CONGO.

NEW CODE FOR THE GERMAN PRESS

London 24th—General Boulanger arrived here this morning.

Brussels 25th—A company is in course of formation for construction of railways in the Congo. It is thought that by this means commercial ends will be advanced, and the idea is supported by several representatives of the Haute Finance in England and Germany.

Berlin 25th—The Federal Council is busy preparing for the Reichstag a new press code which will be particularly severe on socialistic organs.

HIS RECEPTION.

LORD SALISBURY REFUSES HOME RULE AT ANY PRICE.

London, April 25th—Goldseeker won the City and Suburban Handicap at Epsom, Fullerton second, and Wiseman third.

Boulanger, Dillon and other Boulangists left Brussels for England yesterday; they seemed crestfallen and disheartened. But few witnessed their departure and there was neither applause nor enthusiasm. They lelft Ostind at 9 a.m. About 200 persons were gathered on the mole, but there was no manifestation. The passage was rough and the General was sea-sick. On arriving at Dover they were warmly received by a large number of friends. A commissary of the Calais police attended on behalf of the French Government. The party then proceeded to London, arriving late in the day. Hundreds, principally French, were waiting at the station and cheered the General loudly on arrival. Two thousand people outside cheered, shouted and hissed. In front of the hotel he was received by a multitude of friends who welcomed him, and he was visited by his cousins, Griffin and Welsh.

Boulanger, in an interview, expressed his liveliest satisfaction at the hospitality afforded him, adding that he would do nothing to strain relations with France.

Lord Salisbury in a speech at Bristol, important in two points, refused blankly to consider Home Rule for Ireland question, thus shewing that the Cabinet will oppose Chamberlain's project. Another point confirms the right of liberal communists to the seats they hold. The presentation of the honorary freedom of Edinburgh to Parnell is a significant fact. This and proposals for international conference on the question of work, are exciting much attention.

Senate Committee has reported favorably with regard to Government guarantee of Cedulas.

S.s. Leny arrived this morning with 70 kilometres of heavy cable for Platense Telegraph Co. to join B. Ayres with Martin Garcia and Martin Chico on Oriental coast; the line from the latter point to here has been concluded for months past and only cable has been awaited to open up communication immediately between B. Ayres and Montevideo.

S.s. La Plata brings particulars of the Samoa gale. Tempest surprised seven war vessels in Apia roadstead; they tried to get out on account of the dangerous nature of the coast, but only English boat Calliope got away, bound for Sydney. Remainder were all wrecked. German s.s. Eber was the first to go, losing her anchors and driving on to a coral reef round the port of Apia at 6 in the morning; she struck with such force that she sank in a few minutes only a few men being saved. The next was the German s.s. Adler which caught up by a gigantic wave, was hurled on the rocks; part of the crew threw themselves into the water in hope of reaching land which some did; the remainder clung to the masts; commander and officers were saved. The American s.s. Nipsic, admirably handled by the Captain, on being driven ashore was beached on a sand-bank, all the crew being saved in the boats with the exception of six men who were drowned from one boat which capsized. The American s.s. Vandalia met with the same fate as the Eber, the hurricane driving her on to the reef; the Captain was stunned by falling against a Gatling gun and swept off by a sea which broke over the vessel; she sank 40 yards from the Nipsic; several officers and sailors drowned, and others perished trying to swim ashore; others clung on to the rigging for hours and were washed off one by one. Help from shore was impossible. The Trenton followed the Vandalia, but the crew were saved.

At daybreak the Olga which had been able to resist until then was driven on the beach, the crew also escaping.

The morality was as follows: Eber lost commander, all officers but one, and 76 sailors. Nipsic lost six sailors. Vandalia lost commander, four officers and 40 sailors. Adler lost 15 sailors.

THE BUSTAMANTE CONCESSION

Telegrams are hourly expected announcing the sale of this valuable railway concession to a syndicate of Continental Bankers, comprising leading firms in France and Belgium. This concession, our readers will remember, is for the building of a railway from the City of Buenos Aires, through the south of the Province, with a branch to Pigue, on the Southern Railway, and another running in a westerly direction through the pampas territories to Antuco, in Chile. On the capital of this railway the Argentine Government guarantees an interest of 6 per cent. per annum.

It is well known that this Bustamante concession was hawked around the London market for two years. Syndicates were formed for the purchase of this concession. The sale of same was successively rumoured on repeated occasions, but whether the guarantee of the Argentine Government was too meagre, its promise too flimsy, or the syndicates too grasping in their demands, the sale of the concession hung fire all the time, and finally collapsed.

To-day French and Belgian bankers have come to the front and offer to take up the business that London firms affected to despise in spite of the luring bait of an Argentine 6 per cent. guarantee—all the more attractive as the Argentine Government is determined nov to grant any more such concessions on such a very liberal scale. Henceforward, 5 o/o guarantee will be the maximum that can be expected from Argentine generosity. The French bankers are certainly more shrewd than their London colleagues, and they have closed the bargain with Messrs Bustamante and Co. for the fleabite of about half a million sterling.

It is quite certain that the first Section of the railway running through the South of this province will not only be a self-paying concern, but in all probability will have yearly profits of some consideration. Whatever doubts may be entertained as to the future of the section running through the Pampa territories, we know for a fact that a great part of these territories, principally near the bank of the Colorado, and at the foot of the Andes, is excellent pastoral land, with a great future in that line of industry. People who travel by the diligence from Chocl-e-Chocl to Pigue and have had an opportunity of seeing those Pampa lands agree that as pasture lands they are unrivalled.

In fact, another splendid business has slipped out of the grasping fingers of our London friends, to whom we recommend in the future more discrimination and less extortion in such matters. The Bustamante concession is a mine of gold to the concessionaires and offers excellent guarantee to the builders and owners of the future railway. Six per cent per annum guaranteed by the Government ought to be sufficient to push through in any money market of the world a much less plausible scheme than this railway to Chile, and so much the worse for the London bankers if they have failed to see it. We are, however, of opinion that in the time-honoured style of Argentine negotiations for the last three or four years, the London bankers will step forward and buy the concession second-hand from the French syndicate. Then we shall exclaim "Sic semper" and pause to look at the record of Argentine loans bought by London bankers from their Berlin and Paris colleagues.

Railway enterprise in this country is still in its infancy. There is still a wide field open, and this Bustamante railway, whilst opening up the Southern pampa, will lead the way to other railway lines still further South and vastly more imperious—such as the opening up of the Rio Negro valley, a populated and heavily stocked territory, or that of Chubut to the foot of the Andes. These are embryonic schemes which must be carried out in the next two years.

LATEST FROM PARAGUAY

MR. P. A. FREUND'S EXPLORATIONS.

AFFAIRS IN ASUNCION.

THE ZAMBONINI PARADISE.

THE STEWART RAILWAY.

THE OSBORN RAILWAY.

SOMETHING ABOUT THE PARAGUAYAN CHACO.

We had to-day a visit from Mr. P. A. Freund, C.E., who has arrived in the s.s. Saturno from Asuncion, after an absence of nearly two years, mostly spent in surveying large parts of the Paraguayan Republic, the Chaco, and the first section of the Bolivian Railway, the Osborn concession, the plans of which, now finished, Mr. Freund brings to present to his employers. Mr. Freund reports chiefly as follows about Paraguayan affairs:—

Money is very scarce, 2 and 2½ o/o per month discount being quite common. The banks appear to be doing very little business. Price of town property, more so of building lots, is declining very rapidly and many gentlemen who bought very freely 12 months ago cannot pay further instalments, thus losing what they had previously advanced. Rural property hold good, and is firm; good camp is steadily rising in value. It is now perfectly well known that the quality of the camps in the Northern parts of Paraguay, such as the sandy regions of the Ipané, are far inferior to the beautiful camps of the south; and lately the extraordinarily well-developed richness of some very extensive plains, at the foot of the San Raphael mountains, near San Pedro, which hitherto had been very little known on account of being inhabited by Indians, whose peacefulness has now been certified by Mr. Freund and his men, has called very marked attention amongst Paraguayan landowners and in Government circles. It is now known that the eastern slope of the San Raphael mountains contains a succession of small rivulets, open fields, and wooded parks; high ground and glens with the most luxuriant grass.

To this circumstance and to their agricultural pursuits, the peacefulness and relative culture of the Indians inhabiting this secluded spot in the Paraguayan garden must be attributed. The newly made discovery by Mr. Freund of these, even in Southern Paraguay, extraordinarily richly developed clusters of green camps, whose owner is Mr. Zambonini, has added forcibly to lead the string of naturalists, pleasure seekers, travellers and buyers to the picturesque top of the San Raphael, from whose slope the river Tebicuary plainly can be discerned.

With respect to open camp in Paraguay it is to be preferred, as an investment, to forest property. Stocking the open camp with cattle is a paying business, even at present times of low prices, while woodcutting takes much more of the owner's time, gives more trouble, exposes to great risks and leaves less profit.

The English bondholders have got their wooded property very well defined; it consists of some of the prettiest forests; nevertheless no practical work has as yet been commenced, and the capital lies dead. One part of the property consists of open camp: if this were stocked at once there is no doubt that the breeding and selling of cattle within a short time would give a better result than whatever other practical work the company could take in hand. Fever and illness amongst cattle is very little known in Paraguay; it is only necessary to look after it every day and to cure and destroy commencing inflammation; in this consists the whole secret of Paraguayan cattle breeding.

Dr. Stewart's railway concession has not been signed as yet by Government, but it is very probable that everything will have been settled according to our wishes and hopes before this is printed.

The concession, with a Government message, will be debated directly after the Easter holidays by Congress, and its good result has been secured by Dr. Stewart depositing the stipulated amount of 80,000 dollars. It appears that a French-Belgian company, who had the same object in view, have retired from the field. Meanwhile Dr. Stewart has already called some distinguished engineers to his aid, and the line has already been examined by Messrs. Valpy, Angus, Duffy and Perry. The object of the Dr. Stewart's concession will be to take over the railway line to Villa Rica and construct a new line to Encarnacion, bringing Asuncion into railway connection with the Argentine lines.

Large tracts of the Central Paraguayan Chaco, have now been explored by Mr. Freund. He speaks in high terms of the quality of the camps through which the river Negro flows. This river, which up to now has been quite unknown, comes from the vicinity of the Pilcomayo, flows from a strictly western direction and falls into the river Paraguay opposite the harbour of Rosario. It acts as a drain, and has left the banks and its vicinity high and dry, full of organic and animal life. Therefore, the Bolivian projected railway, Osborn's concession, has been designed along the banks of this river. Wherever it is necessary the ground can be drained; wherever it is wanted, a water communication can be established, providing during the time of constructing the railway facilities for transporting materials and provisions. By these means it is thought the projected railways can be constructed at a very cheap rate. The whole length of the 1st section, 176 kilometres, has not got a single heavy excavation, nothing more to be done than to fill up low grounds and raise the whole line half a metre above the ground in order to secure its safety during and after heavy rain floods. The second section of this line is now being surveyed by Mr Stutterheim, of whose whereabouts and success no news has been heard since the month of January, but who is expected soon to return reporting progress. The levels of the Chaco lands are, at the distance of 20 leagues from the coast or from the river Paraguay, about 10 metres higher than at the river; there is therefore not the slightest danger of their getting inundated by river water when high, but since they are nearly horizontal, and since rainwater flows off this impermeable ground so very slowly, there may be danger of their getting inundated by rainwater. The general aspect of Central Chaco lands is pretty and fertile. The ground is clayish and hard, with a layer of black, organic earth. The camp is everywhere covered with good grass, and there is as a rule twice as much camp as forest. The trees in the forests appear to be smaller, and not so healthy as in Paraguay. There are now roads or tracts in many parts of the Central Chaco, and it is not very difficult to travel in the Chaco; at least it is quite safe. However, since the Central Chaco is quite uninhabited by white men, it will always be well to communicate with Mr Freund, who has got large numbers of horses and men established at various points, and who therefore can procure guides to direct travellers to their destination in the Chaco.

ANIBAL AD PORTAS. CANNON-STREET HOTHELLIUM

MODERATOR VULGARIS, GENUS GUINEA-PIG

"MENE MENE TEKEL UPHARSIN"

(From the 'Stock Exchange')

If the views enunciated by Mr. Spurling at the meeting of the British Borneo Gold mining Company are to be accepted and adopted generally, the race of guinea-pigs must rapidly become extinct by the cruel process of starvation. Mr. Spurling objected to the payment of directorial fees until a profit had been made, and this on the face of it may be reasonable enough, but seeing that not more than half the companies (we do not know the exact proportion) in existence pay any dividends, if the idea of "no profits no fees" becomes the accepted dogma, the profession of director must pass into other hands than those of the poor but honest, and generally feeble, gentlemen who now so largely fill the pages of the Directory of Directors. Usually the number of directors on a board is largely in excess of the work to be done; for naturally nearly the whole devolves upon the fittest and the most energetic, the rest merely endorsing his views and doing as they are told to do.

As a rule the gentleman we refer to as the ordinary director has been brought up to no kind of business, and knows nothing whatever about the particular affairs he is called upon to administer. At the shareholders' meetings he sits silent and bored, and with an evident feeling upon him that he knows he is out of place. The chairman does all the talking, except that, perhaps, acting under instructions, and evidently after careful rehearsal, the silent one suddenly bobs up, and in an inaudible voice seconds a resolution in about as eloquent a manner as Mr. Gilroy when returning thanks for the presentation silver cup. Said the president, "Gilroy, there's the jug." Said Gilroy, "Thank'ee, gentlemen, for the mug," and the speechmaking was over.

Nor is our friend much more eloquent or active in the board-room. He arrives early and makes great preparations for work, arranges his pens and his papers, and makes quite a little business out of signing the attendance book. Then, if there are any new certificates to be signed, he enjoys himself for half an hour comparing the numbers with those on the counterfoil, cancelling the old certificates and putting his signature on the new ones, and feels quite important if the chairman asks him to kindly unlock the stamp and see that the company's seal is duly affixed. In the meantime the chairman has run through the agenda, made his notes upon what is to be done, and with a brisk "Well, gentlemen, you don't want me any more," is off to attend to his own business. Our own guinea-pig has also, perhaps, got hold of the bank pass book, and struggles hard to discover what the figures therein mean. He tries to tot them up, and perhaps succeeds in doing so correctly, and by deducting one side from the other discovers that there is a difference, which he assumes to be a credit balance, and so is happy in the assurance that his fees are safe at least for that month.

By this time he has exhausted his resources. He knows nothing about the business in hand, and he has sense enough not to interfere where he is evidently not wanted. Fear of, and respect for, the chairman keep him quiet and silent, and he feels like the little boy who he was when he first went to school; so he furtively makes little sketches on his blotting-paper which he carefully hides, and pretends to be very busy making abstruse calculations if the chairman happens to catch his eye; and no one so happy as he when school—we mean board meeting—is over, and he can trot away happy in the consciousness that he has earned his fees and deserved well of his company. It is true that he has not done much good, but then, on the other hand, he has not done much harm; unless it be harm to accept a position for which he is unfitted, to undertake duties which he neglects, and to take payment for work which he does not do. Some purists would maintain that it is not only harmful, but dishonest; but it is not for us to cast stones at the Colonel Newcomes. The shareholders do not, it is true, put them where these are found; but they acquiesce in the nomination, and only when it is too late do they raise any remonstrance.

Sometimes, poor wretch, he cannot get his fees, and then he poses as a patriot and a martyr before his constituents, and feels full of triumphant virtues as he reads that paragraph in the report which says, "Under the present circumstances of the company the directors have agreed to forego their fees for the past year"; but as soon as the echo of the "Hear, hear!" with which the shareholders receive the announcement has passed away, he regrets the guineas which should have been his. Perhaps, however, his broker has helped him to make a trifle by "bearing" the shares of his company before bad news became known, for our colonel is by no means a bad hand at a bargain, and can pop in and out of stock as nimbly as the oldest jobber, so that, after all, the wind is tempered to the poor little tailless pig. Besides which, Newcome is on his promoter's list, who has another directorship ready for him to step into, until one fine day our friend by chance gets upon the board of a real good thing, and, by carefully attending to the market, and not wasting his time on the company's affairs beyond learning early what is going on, he makes enough spoil to retire from City life, and live upon the money and the reputation he has made out of his successful venture, and others of the guinea-pig family arise and go through the same noviciate in the same feeble way. And so it will continue until some terrible upheaval in the way of a new and sensible Joint-stock Companies Act will render his existence so unprofitable and unpleasant that he will have to adopt, as other ruined trades have done, some other mode of existence. Shareholders are a long-suffering, patient race; they, like Balaam's pony, occasionally raise a meek remonstrance, but they never turn and rend their masters, so the Newcomes are safe so far as they are concerned.

THE BRITISH COMPANIES ACTS

LIMITED LIABILITY OF SHAREHOLDERS IN ENGLAND.

(By One who Knows)

(Concluded.)

Last year in the beginning of the Parliamentary Session the draft of the new Bill was handed round, but Irish business prevented its being reached.

To criticise a draft of an Act of Parliament which I do not happen to have here is not my intention, as I chiefly went to relate facts and point out existing abuses; and, for fear of wearying your readers, I will conclude this rather lengthy letter by roughly relating what the chief points in the Bill are, and then, without further comment, your readers will agree with me that there will be very considerable difficulties in carrying it out, and that the framing contains more theory than practice can stand.

All promoters in London are any how at present making hay as long as their favourite sun is allowed to shine for them; for, when promotion business is made more difficult it will do away with employments and trades which are quite unknown in this country.

Fancy, for instance: offices where never less than 40 girls are employed, day and night, all the year round, to address wrappers for prospectuses!

Fancy: clerks copying lists of shareholders in different companies all the year round, and classifying and correcting them constantly, in order to hawk these lists about in promoters' offices, so that these gentlemen may be comfortably furnished with the addresses of likely subscribers!

The returns of the Post Office will also be materially affected, as for every company that is advertised 100,000 to 500,000 prospectuses (generally varying according to the credit the promoter can get from the printer) are sent out by post, mostly in half-penny wrappers; but often, for fear that the waste-paper basket should receive its due too early, envelopes and penny stamps are wasted in circulating the best opportunity for large dividends ever known!

Newspapers will be the greatest sufferers, as every paper has a special scale for companies advertisements, which are two or three times as expensive as any other. Whole columns are reserved days beforehand to secure good positions and a premium over and above the fixed charge has often to be paid to advertising agents for the whole back sheet of a financial paper that only charges the moderate amount of £80 for one advertisement. A large company is generally advertised in about sixty newspapers all over the country and the advertisement repeated four or six times.

To return to the new act, however. The principal features are the heavy obligations put upon directors even before they take their seat on the board, and the impossibility of bogus concerns to have a legal existence as an incorporated body.

Instead of accepting the registration of any company as long as it has a new name, the new Bill provides, that in future only a preliminary registration certificate be given, and that the company can only be registered after the whole (or nearly the whole) of the capital has been bona fide subscribed and a certain percentage thereon paid up; and should within the prescribed time this not be done, the preliminary registration shall be cancelled.

In that case the Directors shall be liable to return all monies received intact to the shareholders.

Furthermore the Directors are required to become large investors in the company they represent, and the onus thrown upon them is so great that either it will be next to impossible to form a Board of Directors, or the character of the company will be of such high standing that the outside investor will not have a chance to obtain shares at par, and a wide field will be opened for premium hunters who are commonly known in the city as "stags."

All precautions will be taken to guard against misstatements in prospectuses, and not only does the new law lay down what is not to be said, but it also requires certain statements and valuations, by responsible authorities, to be inserted in every prospectus or notice inviting subscriptions towards capital.

Other points, as for instance, payment of interest during construction, contractor's issues by the company on behalf of the contractors, issue of shares at a premium: issue of founders' shares providing reserve fund and so forth are all considered in the Act, which, although it will take some time to level it down into a practical shape certainly promises to do a lot of good.

The present promoters will still have a large field left to them by undoing what they have built up and forcing their own companies to go into liquidation, as there are few things a London promoter is more fond of than of company wrecking and to be named liquidator of the concern. It is of course an easy thing to upset a rotten company and to force it into liquidation, especially for the man who knows all the weak points, but although the shareholders see their very last hopes disappear thereby, the sooner the funeral is over the better, although the undertaker's bill is heavy.

Anyhow, people here will profit indirectly by the new Law, as I thoroughly believe it will be the means to create a strong demand for sound industrial investments and, as I said before, where is there a better field than Argentina?

Shareholders in local companies here who repeatedly grumble at the laws of this country, really do not know when they are well off, as although no act of Parliament can make a man honest, for all that, the laws here being modelled after the French laws, leave very little to be desired, although I hold it a mistake to let every company have its own statutes.

Yours etc.

L. H.

LONDON LETTER

(From our own Correspondent.)

March 15th.

M. Pilet Will has resigned his position in the Bank of France. He is not satisfied with the securities offered by the Comptoir d'Escompte for the four millions sterling advanced. It is said that when the securities came to be overhauled they were found to be 35 to 40 million francs short of what had been represented. The rumour that another director has sent in his resignation sent down securities in the London Stock Exchange. The rumour proved to be false, and the market revived, but only a little. Much uncertainty exists. Mr. Rouvier is endeavouring to form a commission to thoroughly examine the state of the Comptoir and make an official report. The French Ministry gained much credit for its prompt interference in trying to save a general crash by the fall of the Comptoir d'Escompte, but unhappily the Copper Syndicate is inextricably bound up with that bank's affairs, and people in France, including the makers of Lebel cartridges, are crying out against the Government for sustaining the upper ring, and as a natural consequence the copper interests as apart from the copper ring support General Boulanger. The General's prospects have been decidedly damaged by the clever coup on the part of the Government in readmitting the Duc d'Aumale into France. The Duke returned at once, his eyes brimming with tears of gratitude and satisfaction at finding himself once more on the beloved boulevards and within reach of Chantilly. The royalist party of course refuses to share in the gratitude, and thinks ths Duke has conferred a favour upon the distressed Republican Government. In fact, everthing in Paris is in a transitionary state, and the stock markets of Europe preserve, if not a depressed, a waiting and anxious attitude. Meanwhile the Standard assures us that Austria is making military preparations to the extent of preparing barges for the transport of troops across the Danube in case of difficulties in Servia. The diplomatic correspondence between the Regents and the Austrian Government remains friendly in tone. I do not know if the Germans in London know more about continental politics than other people, but some of them tell me that the state of affairs in the Balkan provinces is very serious and that war is as likely to come this year as the next. It strikes me that the English Government has fears—or shall I say hopes—in the same direction or it would not sit so composed under the grave charge of conspiracy in the Parnell question and of unconstitutional conduct in its plan of national defence which only eighteen months since the present First Lord as well as the junior Lords of the admiralty declared to be efficient. In fact we are at a dead-lock, and even Mr. Gladstone keeps out of the way, as if in doubt how to act. The result of the Kennington election will have a certain effect either in inspiring the Liberal leaders to press their opponents, or in so damping their spirits and ensuring to the Tories a further lease of power for which they will have to make terms with the Birmingham unionists, who are on the eve of taking the wind out of Mr. Gladstone's sails by forcing the government to give Home Rule on Chamberlain lines. As a matter of fact there is very little difference on that question between Mr. Gladstone and Mr. Chamberlain. What there was, was purely a personal one. The probable result of the Parnell commission, in which the Times case ended badly with a recalcitrant witness named Coffey, who was committed for contempt of Court, will be the complete exoneration of Mr. Parnell, but the judges may find a case against Mr. Davitt and Mr Biggar. Each party will in any case pay its own costs.

You will see that two old South Americans, Admiral Juares and Tamberlik the singer, have joined the majority. Tamberlik was born in 1820. He has not sung in public since 1884 when he appeared in Madrid. He died comfortably in the house of a very happily married son-in-law, Dr. Galezowski, in the Boulevard Hausmann.

Mr. Blowitz of the Times tells us that it was he who recommended the late French Minister of Marine to Mr. Waddington, when the latter gentleman was in office under General McMahon, for the post of Ambassador to Madrid. Admiral Juares, who spoke a little Spanish, was very successful, but court intrigues did not suit the simple republican and blunt sailor, and he soon asked to be allowed to rejoin his ships.

A shocking case of shooting editors comes to us from the States. A physician, one Mc Dhow, had been too attentive to a maid in the service of Captain Dawson, editor of the Charleston News and Courier. The Captain called upon the physician and remonstrated. The physician, who seems to be a dangerous and brutal fellow, shot Dawson there and then, and evidently made preparations to bury him in his cellar. Perhaps finding the digging too troublesome he gave himself up, telling a tale about Dawson having struck him with a cane and so on. All this story of his seems to be false. Dawson was an Englishman who emigrated many years ago and fought in the American civil war, and seems to have led a stirring and romantic life.

To-night—Friday—I have no financial papers and the general news is without interest. I may, however, mention that electric motive power on tramways—the Series system—has been tried at Northfleet with great success, and attracts much attention in London. It claims to be cheaper to work by one half than horse power, and cheaper than any known mechanical means of traction. The sooner you look after it the better for your shareholders in tramways, and what is more interesting to the philosophic and benevolent, for your horses, which I see are greatly ill used.

ENGINEER MAES-ETIENNE AND THE DISPUTE BETWEEN MESSRS. NOUGUIER AND CO. AND THE CENTRAL ARGENTINE RAILWAY. — THE NORTHERN RAILWAY. — ENGINEER SILVA'S REPORT ON THE ANDINE RAILWAY. SALE OF THE OLIVIER CONCESSION. OTHER ITEMS.

The dispute between Messrs. Nouguier and the Central Argentine Railway, in regard to a tracing from San Fernando to Pergamino, has finally been settled by the parties concerned. Engineer Maes-Etienne has written to the Board of Public Works giving the details and conditions of the arrangements arrived at. Messrs. Nougier agree to cross the Conchas Arroyo at a point to be chosen, and the Central Argentine will cross the same stream keeping always at a minimum distance of one kilometre from Messrs Nouguier's tracing. The Central Argentine will run their line in the direction of Capilla del Señor. The tracings are to be altered in accordance with these arrangements, which put a stop to a dispute that at one time promised to afford the legal "gremio" some rare fun.

We reserve for our next issue some remarks on Inspector Koenig's report on the Northern Line. The Standard reporter, in glancing over the report at the Board of Public Works, misinterpreted it most lamentably, and made it appear as unfavourable to the company; the contrary being the case, as we discovered last evening on reading the entire report through. "Hasta mañana."

Engineer Silva, who was sent up some time ago to make inquiries into the causes of the suspension of traffic on the Andine Line, has forwarded his report to the Board of Public Works. According to the report before us, the suspension of traffic was occasioned by the earthworks giving way at kil. 30 in consequence of the heavy rains. Mr. Silva says that the company must take some steps to preclude the recurrence of the floods. Between Villa Maria and Rio Cuarto the road-bed is in very bad condition, owing to the neglect and indifference of the company, who never have a sufficient number of men to repair the way. In conclusion Mr. Silva states that the company are directly responsible for the present state of the line.

Mr. Fisher, manager of the Central Argentine Railway, has written to the Board of Public Works to state he has resumed running night-trains, but that no combination-tickets will be given until further notice.

According to Mr. T. Clarke's report on the last accident on the Rosario Line, it would appear that the mishap was caused by the derailment of the back wheels of a van. As there was a kerosene lamp burning in this van, the violence of the shock upset it, and in this way the van was fired. It is somewhat singular that with the recollections of the Bancalari disaster still fresh in the public mind, the company should continue to use kerosene. The cause of the derailment was the imprudence of the pointsman, who turned the switch before the train had passed.

Inspector Fay, in his report, states that the train was going altogether too fast in approaching the junction. Mr. Fay shews that the van was dragged half a kilometre, and caused considerable damage to the way. It is quite evident there was nobody in the van.

Once for all let kerosene be done away with. Derailments are now so frequent that a repetition of the Bancalari disaster is by no means an improbability.

Advices from La Plata state that Mr. Pastor Tapia, chief of the Provincial Engineers' Department, will be named chairman of the Provincial Railway Board, in lieu of Mr. Arias, who takes a seat in the Senate. Mr. Tapia is very well-known and he will doubtless set the Provincial railway in order. The Western Line needs many improvements. The road-bed is in a very bad condition. Mr. Tapia ought to see his way to the erection of a fine terminus at the Once. The present structure is most dilapidated and reflects very little credit on the Province.

Messrs. Ware & Co., according to our La Plata exchanges, have applied for a concession for a line from Ferrari to Puan. The same gentlemen offer to purchase the state line running from La Plata to Ferrari at cost price plus 25 per cent, which appears to be a very favorable offer.

Messrs. Olivier and Co.'s concession for a railway in the province has been purchased in London, it is supposed by the Southern Railway. The price paid is £400,000. Apropos of the Southern Railway, we hear that Messrs. Coghlan and Barker are drawing up plan for further branches of the great trunk-line.

A correspondent writing to a Chilian contemporary gives some interesting details in regard to the Trans-Andine Railway. There are now 2,500 men at work under the superintendence of 20 to 30 engineers, foremost among whom we may mention Messrs. Schwartzmun and Mantegazza. The employees are about 60 in number and are under the immediate direction of Mr. Martinez Rosas. At present all the energy of the contractors is concentrated on completing the section from Mendoza to Uspallata. There are to be five tunnels in this section, ranging from 60 to 120 metres in length, and thirteen bridges of 45 to 75 metres. The line to Uspallata has a length of 95 kilometres, and at the boundary line 170. Three staffs of engineers under Mr. Schwartzman's direction are at work looking for the most convenient passage from the Paramillo del Monte to Juncal. This passage will save a lot of trouble, and it is possible that the contractors will now be able to complete the workin three years, although about 17 kilometres of tunnel have to be pierced. On the Chilian side the line will have a length of 65 kilometres from Santa Rosa to Juncal, with 12 kilometres of tunnels. The works are going ahead rapidly.

M. Thouar, the well-known and intrepid explorer, has returned to the Plate with a railway-scheme in his pocket. He proposes to construct a line from Formosa to Carza in Bolivia. Mr. Thouar knows all that territory, which he explored so many times in search of the ill-starred Crevaux

EDITOR'S TABLE.

Everybody—at least all the fair sex—was talking yesterday of Alderman Tamini's plan for promoting the employment of women instead of men in the city shops. The worthy Alderman has hit the nail a tremendous whack on the head in a very simple way, viz, by proposing that those shops where women are employed shall only pay half taxes; and the National Government will be asked to grant the same favour as regards Patentes. Of course 'confiterias', 'cafes', milliners' shops and every place where refreshments are sold wont be allowed to enjoy the benefit of the new Act. In spite of our well and favorably known "entusiasmo" in the cause of the ladies, no matter whether they are right or wrong we do not anticipate a sweeping success for this new movement. As we remarked the other day, ladies do not prefer to be served by their own sex in shops. The advocates of this new movement say the contrary. "Vamos á ver." The very class this movement is meant to benefit will also be opposed to it. The Argentine woman, in her honour be it said, is very retiring, and will not take kindly to this new departure.

We recommend our lady readers to call at Peuser's well-known book store in Calle San Martin and buy a neat little book bound in cream-colour and gold, called "La Perfecta Cocinera Argentina". The mere scanning of its leaves yesterday gave us such an appetite that we had three lunches. Mr. Peuser, the publisher of this and so many other valuable works, started yesterday for a tour in Europe, and we wish him every enjoyment.

Save us from our friends! The waterworks men are going to tear up the streets again to lay new mains. The shop-keepers will tear out their hair (their own, not that of the w.m.; though perhaps they would like to do that too) at this fresh prospect of their goods being ruined by dust and dirt.

The funeral of the lamented Mr. F. E Thicke, the architect, was largely attended on Wednesday, showing the general esteem in which he was so deservedly held His premature death is most sincerely regretted in English circles.

Mr. George Collins Levey has laid a proposal for an International Exhibition in this city before the Minister of the Interior. He asks Government for a subsidy of $750,000, and the necessary ground for the Show.

Mr. A. Doering has sent the National Government a bill for $8000, for analizing the thermal springs of Santiago del Estero. He was a year and a half at the job.

The North Americans interested in assisting in the formation of a Base Ball Club, are requested to meet at the Criterion, Saturday night at 8½ o'clock. Those who do not play please come and help us to establish a means of enjoying our National game here.

We are glad to see that the Press Association, a body that we hold in the most profound esteem, is going to work vigorously under the new committee. A series of conferences, at which it is expected the most famous orators in the House and forum will take the word, are being arranged, and we understand that reform and advance is now the watchword. We believe it is also in view to make the Association rooms a club, and this will undoubtedly be a boon for the members, who have up to the present been protecting a Mutual Aid Society. As for the pecuniary prospects they are far from mean, which will afford the Committee ample means to carry out their programme.

More public money for "musica!" Ferrari's company is to get 60,000 nats and Ducci's in the Politeama 40,000 for the present 'temporada. How can this be necessary, with the enormous prices charged the public at both houses?

The murderers of the man Magnello, who was killed in Calle Venezuela on Saturday night have been captured. It was a cowardly and revolting crime, committed for two cents worth of grapes. One miscreant held the poor victim down while the other drove a knife through his heart, and four others looked on. All concerned are Italians.

Captain Howard has reported in favour of Punta Mogotes as the proper place for building the long-talked of Lazaretto. We wonder if anything will be done this time, after twenty years' talk over the matter.

One hundred and forty Knights of the Needle got into prison on Wednesday for menacing and annoying fellow workmen who refused to join in their strike for higher wages.

An article in another column on "Guinea-pigs", from the Stock Exchange, comes in very well with that on the "Companies Acts" by "One who knows". "Cannon Street hotelism" must have been awfully shocked at this most irreverent and amusing article. Time was when Boards of Directors were hedged in by a divinity almost as awful as that which looks after kings; but nothing is sacred nowadays. The "Chairman" appears to be safe so far, but his time

Ecepcional remate de terrenos
100,000 Varas Cuadradas
Sobre la Calle de Santa Fe en Belgrano.

Terrenos notables por su altura que se elevan mas de un metro sobre el nivel de la calle.

Solares de todos tamaños, todos con frente a calles de veinte varas perfectamente abovedadas.

Dos esplendidas casas quintas en el terreno que iran por nuestras.

Venta forzosa por division de condominio entre los Sres. Agustin Roca y Horacio F. Guerrico.

Base las cedulas o sea 1.50 pesos mas o menos la vara cuadrada, la quinta parte de su valor.

Para mayor facilidad de los compradores las escrituras matrices seran de cuenta de los vendedores.

El Domingo, 28 de Abril,
A las 2 de la tarde,

Venderemos estos esplendidos terrenos conocidos por quinta de Nuñez, por cualquier precio que exceda a las cedulas, por division de condominio, entrando por muerta una esplendida casa con diez habitaciones, jardines, palomar, cocheras, etc., sobre la calle Santa Fe; otro precioso chalet de seis piezas, cocina, etc., galpones para cabeza lleriza, etc., sobre la calle Nuñez; esta ultima se ha hecho desalojar para el dia de la venta y pagada de arrendamiento 100 pesos m/n. con mil varas de terreno.

Creemos inutil hacer notar la esplendida posicion y gran porvenir de estos terrenos, situados sobre el boulevard Santa Fe, macadamizado, con dos lineas de tramways a la puerta, y a mas, a 300 varas de la estacion Nuñez F. C. del N., donde paran todos los trenes siempre que hay pasajeros. Estan pues a 20 minutos de la plaza. Victoria teniendo todo genero de comunicaciones en el centro, los hipodromos Palermo, etc.

El consejo escolar levantara en seguida en el centro de estos terrenos un esplendido edificio escolar, que ocupara 2000 varas cuadradas, y que sera notable en su construccion.

La venta se hara al contado, pudiendo el comprador continuar con la hipoteca recibiendo las cedulas al precio del dia de la escritura a estilo de Bolsa.

Los terrenos estan divididos en lotes de 500, 1000, 2000 y mas varas cada uno, habiendo por lo tanto facilidades para todos los bolsillos, pues todos tienen hipotecas, y los compradores podran continuar con ellas si les conviene.

Nota importante:—Para comodidad de los señores interesados, saldra un tren expreso de la estacion Central a las 1 y 30 p. m., parando en la estacion Nuñez a 300 varas del terreno.

OTRA—Cualquiera que sea el comprador entregara el 5 o/o al firmar el boleto.

Señores hace proximamente 3 meses que vende 70 lotes de estos mismos terrenos, en donde los compradores se estorbaban para hacer postura y sin embargo del gran interés que tenian, el rematador siempre con el deseo de que los pobres progresen, en el menor descuido daba el golpe sin embargo de haber mas ofertas, asi se debe hacer por que desde que los vendedores ganan cuatro os muy justo que los compradores ganan dos, hace 25 años que remato terrenos y casas y siempre me ha cabido la gloria de haber hecho ganar plata á los que me han comprado, hoy con mas razon debo proceder de la misma manera porque estoy proximo á partir para Genova y quiero dejar un recuerdo de nobleza á mis amigos los gringos de quienes guardo en mi alma un agradecimiento eterno porque á ellos debo la mayor parte de lo poco que poseo antes de partir pienso dar un abrazo á mis amigos Italianos y á la llegada á Genova hare otro tanto con los que encuentre allí, mi viage será corto asi es que pronto estaré aquí para poder ser util á los que me han favorecido. Business to-day at the first ring was brisk all round. The sovereign stock, which for some days past has been developing pronounced signs of weakness, occupied most attention, and heavy lots were disposed of both for end of month and May at declining rates. Opening at 256, the closing rate of yesterday for end of month, the rate fluctuated between 257.50 and 255 almost until the close of the ring, when the weakness became so accentuated that the quotation dropped to 254 without shewing any signs of reacting; for end of May there were many buyers up to 258.50. After the sovereign stock, Constructors occupied most attention, there being brisk demand for all dates, at 132.50 for end of month, 136 end of May, and 139.50 end of June. Bolsa Bank Scrip fell off to 59 for end of May. Catalinas keep firm at 153 for end of month, as also Credito Real at 137 for same date. Some other stocks were quoted at firm rates, and it it is thought strange that whilst National Bank is tumbling, the other stocks keep up. Cedulas were quiet and firm.

The National Bank to-day gave out the following amounts of gold, by order of Minister Varela;—

It is said in the ring that the main cause of the fall in the sovereign stock is the tightness of paper, holders holding out for 18 o/o, whilst 14 o/o to 15 o/o is offered. A business was reported to-day, paper advanced against 1000 National Bank Shares, taken at 220, at 15 o/o, and another business was spoken of at 14 o/o, but nothing can now be done at latter rate.

In exchange there is said to be much sterling offering in the market at 47⅞d., but there are few takers. Francs are not offered, but rate is the same.

An important sale of land at Campana is reported. The property measures 100 squares, between cliff and the river, and has been up to the present practically useless to the owners, being marshy. It has now been purchased by the Pilar-Campana Railway Company for 1000 m/n the square. Sellers, Messrs. Costa Bros. The company intend to build moles and large goods sheds on the site.

The dividend of 6¼ dollars lately declared by the Primitive Gas Company is payable from Monday next.

A decree appeared yesterday granting the Banco Constructor power to buy and sell their Obligations, but only for account of third parties. Although the Attorney-General, Dr Costa, reported unfavourably on the bank's application to this effect, it seems only just to allow the bank a privilege enjoyed by almost every other kindred concern in the Plate. The decree put fresh strength into the stock, and the shares and Obligations of this bank may now be regarded as some of the most rising stock in the market. There can be no doubt the shares of this company under good, careful management have a great future, as the bank holds some of the best properties in this city and in La Plata.

The Banco de Italia y Rio de la Plata did a large exchange business yesterday and to-day, drawing at the following rates:—

On Paris, at sight	.....	3.10 paper
" "	90 days ...	3.13 "
" London	90 days ...	29⅛ "
" "	at sight ...	29½ "
" "	...	40⅝ gold
On Paris	90 days ...	4.94 "
" Berlin	90 days ...	3.96 marks
" Genoa	90 days ...	4.96 gold

The Hon. Clare Parsons is successor to Mr Nystromer as Mr Bateman's representative in the Plate.

Mr. Ogilvey, who has arrived out from England, was welcomed on change. His name is identified with the construction of the Central Argentine Railway, one of the greatest works of this country. He leaves to-morrow for Rosario.

National Bank shares now show a fall of over twenty points within 60 days. So serious a fall in a 20 per cent. stock which represents not only the credit of the Government, but of the country, points to the very powerful influence of the clique opposed to Minister Varela and his measures—and it is to be hoped the stock will not go much lower, otherwise we may look forward to a krack in the market similar to that last year.

The new rules for the management of the Provincial Banks are now before the Governor and his Minister of Hacienda, and it is thought will be sanctioned in a few days. They embody many great reforms. 5 per cent. amortization will only be allowed on bills under 10,000 nats., and for others the rate will be from 10 to 50 per cent according to the nature of the acceptance; no credit to one signature to be allowed over 150,000 nats., and for two signatures 250,000 nats. Open credits in account will be allowed at all the branches, and none of the branches will pay interest on capital to the head house. The meeting of directors will be limited to twice a week. Such is a precis of this important paper, which of course will free the La Plata Bank from paying interest on the very large amount it owes the Bank in Buenos Aires.

The Duchessa di Genova's mails were delivered to-day with dates from London to April 1st. The news from London is most favorable. The bankers in London connected with the Plate write very cautiously about Minister Varela's measures, but they seem to approve of the great pluck of the Minister in attempting a step so unpopular on the Bolsa as the stopping of the unbridled gold speculation. We have received a long and interesting letter from a banker in Genoa who thoroughly understands this market, and who so far sympathizes with Mr Varela in his efforts to reform the market that he points to the means by which he can put the gold market between 30 to 40 premium and keep it there. The letter is written with great care and ability, and this afternoon we laid it before H E.

In order to prevent confusion, the founders of the London and Argentine Bank have agreed to change the name. It will now be called "The Banco Anglo-Argentino". The new manager of this bank, which is about to be opened in this market, is Mr. Lovel J. Mullins, late manager of the English Bank of Rio in Rio.

The sale of the Knabbe Estancia, near La Gama on the Southern Railway, ten leagues of land with "poblaciones" for one hundred and fifty thousand pounds sterling is reported.

Also the sale of Mr. Muggeridge's fine estancia alongside Curumalan, on the Southern Railway, for 75,000 nats. gold per league.

Also the sale of the Garraghan Estancia, Partido Rodriguez, one square league, for seven hundred and four thousand nats, being at the rate of 440 m/n per square. It was bought about 35 years ago, we believe, for about five thousand nats.

New maize is coming into market now very fast, and large sales in the plazas reported.

The London and River Plate Bank has done a large business in exchange in these days at the following rates.

On London—46⅜ 90 days gold.
" " 29½ paper.
" Paris—4.95 gold.
" " 3.13 paper.

The Merchants' Committee received to-day hundreds of signatures of the first houses in this market in favor of the Resolutions to be presented to Minister Varela on Monday. The adhesion to the step is so unanimous that the committee finds the saloons of the Cafe de Paris will be too small and steps are taken to obtain the National theatre wherein to meet and from thence to march in procession to the Government House. Should there be any difficulty about getting the theatre, then the committee will meet in the Plaza Victoria. The Resolutions are at our office where parties wishing to help Minister Varela can sign same.

Business at the second hour was more or less on the same lines as in the morning, with the exception that the Credito Real joined the sovereign stock in the decline. As for National Bank Shares matters look ticklish in the extreme, as the heavy differences are causing a very serious impression in the market and almost portend a semi-krach. They closed in the evening at 252 for end of month, offered freely, and at 258 for end of May. Constructors still shew a bold front closing at the same rate as at the first hour. Credito Real dropped away to 135 for end of month. La Plata Moles were quoted at 143 for end month and Bolsa Bank at 58.50 for end month and 60 end May. Cedulas were quiet, the principal feature being the large sale of O, new Provincial series at 76.50. Nothing else of importance was done.

The following is a summary of operations effected this evening at the second ring:—

At a late hour on Change is was announced that the Committee of Merchants, finding that the National Theatre would be too small, had arranged that the Committee and all parties sympathizing with the cause meet under the Cabildo, Plaza Victoria, at 2 o'clock on Monday next, when the procession to the Government House will form, march down Calle Victoria, up Peru, and thence down Rivadavia to the Government House, and all the business houses of parties sympathising with the cause to be closed from 2 to 4 p.m. on Monday. Several thousand signatures have been already obtained.

All the papers have fallen into a great error about the gold shipped in the Galileo, which, instead of being 4250,000, was only 236,000 nats. The following is the exact list of shipments:—

For Rio Janeyro,	100,800	nat. dollars.
" London,	126,000	"
	52,920	"
" "	6,703	"

Telegrams from London to-day state that the result of the Central Northern emission is highly satisfactory.

As nearly all the paper money in the market is now held by the Government or National Bank, there is not a dollar to be got to pay for National Bank Shares at the end of this month. The squeeze in the share market is tremendous.

The Chairman of the Province of B. Aires telephone Company has begged permission from the National Government to extend wires to San Nicolas and Rosario.

The La Plata Government has conceded the extension of the lines within provincial jurisdiction.

The President of the Board of City Improvement Works has informed the Finance Minister of the receipt of 155,594 dollars gold and 240,000 dollars m/n paper from the leasing company to close all outstanding accounts with the Government.

Mr. A G Pruden, of Blackstone and Co., took leave of his many friends on 'Change to-day. He leaves to-morrow in the Pacific steamer for Europe after four months' enjoyable and profitable stay in the Plate. He leaves with the impression that the growth of business in the Plate is too great for the British manufacturers. We hope to welcome him back to the Plate before the end of the year.

Messrs. Blackstone & Co. have introduced into this country a new mower, known as the Royal Stamford Mower, on exhibition at the offices of Moore and Tudor in B. Aires and Rosario. The new mower aspires to be the best of the kind invented up to date, and we advise farmers to inspect those on exhibition in this city.

Gold ruled all day in the neighbourhood of 157, being done down to about 156.50, but paper money is very scarce, and it is thought that gold may come lower still.

In the produce market business is quiet. Wools show a falling off in arrivals, and brokers think that seven-eighths of the clip may be considered disposed of. Prices are just a trifle weaker. Sheepskins in demand.

Mr. William Casey, estanciero, who has arrived from the camp was welcomed; he reports great mortality amongst sheep, and very heavy losses in the flocks to the North and West.

The report of The River Plate Trust Loan and Agency has come out by the Mail. It is a most important paper. We note the concern made net profits last year £81,966 13s. 8d., which shows what a splendid business it is doing. The Bank will henceforward pay a fixed dividend of 18½ per cent per annum gold on the A shares. This nearly rivals the Banco de Italia & Rio de la Plata that pays for the last 5 years 20 per cent gold per annum dividend to its shareholders.

Sixty million more Cedulas for a heavily burdened market! It is said that on the meeting of Congress the National Mortgage Bank will be authorized to emit three more series, F, G, and H, of 20 millions each. One of the saving features of the idea is that Minister Varela hopes to be able to place the greater part of them in Europe.

Advices from Rosario announce that at a meeting of shareholders of the Banco Constructor Santafecino, a resolution to increase the capital by five million dollars was almost unanimously agreed to. The track for a new tram-line, which will run through some of the principal streets, is being laid. An idea to build an industrial quarter in one of the suburbs, similar to the Reus Barrio, is on the tapis, and meets with much support.

The s.s. Sirio, announced to sail for Genoa on 26th inst., has postponed her date of sailing to 30th.

The s.s. La Plata arrived in Montevideo to-day from Bordeaux with 99 first-class and 213 steerage passengers, 3240 bordalesas of wine, and 4594 parcels. She made the run out in 20 days, being her maiden trip. Mails come up to-night in Rivadavia.

The s.s. J. W. Taylor, Lamport and Holt line, arrived last night in Montevideo with Liverpool dates to 23rd March; will be up on Saturday with 4,400 tons cargo.

The Lamport and Holt s.s. Leny arrived in Montevideo yesterday from London with dates to 25th March and 3220 tons cargo. She will be up on Sunday.
